FROM THE PASTOR...

Hello everyone,

I pray that you are doing well and staying healthy. I would encourage you this week (and the weeks hereafter) to use your time wisely. Nothing can throw us off our Christian walk as easily as a change in routine. Also, since satan is a thief (Jn. 10:10), one of the things he most loves to steal is our time. I speak from personal experience here. I can get side tracked quite easily, look up, and see that time has slipped away from me. Therefore guard your time and use it wisely, for we only get so much of it here.

With this being Easter season, this week's sermon will look at Jesus' Triumphant Entry into Jerusalem. This would be the one time in His ministry that Jesus would accept the praise of a crowd. We will be focusing in on the types of people present that day and how they might relate to the depth of our faith. May the Lord bless you this week.

In Him,
Jason
